!Carnivale!

“Carnivale”, a colourful scene of stunning masks, feathers and colours set for celebration at the Master Builders Bankwest Building Excellence Awards at Zanders on Cable Beach Broome on Saturday 14th May 2016. In attendance was the Honorable Michael Mischin MLC, Attorney General, and Minister for Commerce and Melissa Price MP, member for Durack.

Builders entering the awards this year went into the draw for a stunning $5000 Broome Pearl collection by Galwey Pearls. Owner and Designer Lyndal Galwey, drew out Michael Smythe from Custom Lifestyle Homes who had earlier won Best Contract Home $300,000 - $350,000. He was one happy builder.

Builders PGM Constructions, new players this year, took off a number of awards including the coveted Best Country Home for a magnificent home in Dunnart Crescent Broome. Pindan Contracting were awarded overall winners of the Best Commercial Building for the Fitzroy Crossing Courthouse, both well-deserved wins.

Four years running saw Broome Builders again at the top of the ladder winning Best Customer Service amongst many other awards.

Winning Carpentry Apprentice of the Year Jeremy Allen, is into his third year of training and is an integral member of the Broome Builders team. Jeremy has an open dialog with his supervisors and receives enormous praise from his TAFE lecturers on his efforts throughout his apprenticeship. His ability to perform at a high level is equally matched by his interpersonal skills, making him well respected and genuinely liked by his fellow employees and contractors.

One of our new members from Exmouth, Bruce Turner Creations, was thrilled with his Contract Home and Trade awards, as was H & M Tracey Construction for five wins, plus Employer, Project Builder and Supervisor of the Year with team member Matthew Hall. Elson Builders won the Judges Innovation Award including two Contract Homes and two trade wins. Northwest Builders also won the Contract Home under $250,000.

The night marked the awards 14th year in Broome and was a huge success enjoyed by each of our 160 guests.
