HHG Legal Group & Master Builders' WA

Series 1: Negotiating your contracts and choosing the right contract and subcontract

Subcontractors and Builders often take on expensive jobs with little in the way of contractual protection. Other times, subcontractors may be presented with volumes of paper and told to take it or leave it. Either way, if you don't know what to look out for, you won't know what risks you are likely to face or how to avoid them. At this 3 hour session, we will look at how to identify, avoid and manage the risks faced by subcontractors.
