Series 1 NEGOTIATING YOUR CONTRACTS & CHOOSING THE RIGHT CONTRACT AND SUBCONTRACT

Subcontractors and Builders often take on expensive jobs with little in the way of contractual protection. Other times, subcontractors may be presented with volumes of paper and told to 'take it or leave it'. Either way, if you don't know what to look out for, you won't know what risks you are likely to face or how to avoid them. In this 3 hour workshop, we will look at how to identify, avoid and manage the risks faced by subcontractors.

Participants will gain knowledge as to :-

- General introduction to the Construction Contracts Act
- Operation of the Construction Contracts Act
 - What does it apply to?
 - What does the Construction Contracts Act do?
- Payment claims
- Responding to payment claim
- Referring a payment dispute to adjudication
- Preparing and serving documents under the Construction Contracts Act
- Application for Adjudication
- Response to Application to adjudication
- The Adjudicator and the adjudication process
- Determinations
- Enforcement of a Determination
- Applications to set aside a determination (jurisdictional error)
- The future of the Construction Contracts Act - proposed amendments
- Recent cases – examples
- Understanding of some of the key risks you need to be aware of when negotiating contracts, particularly regarding the Personal Property Securities Act, and what to do about them.
