

SAFETY AND HEALTH REPRESENTATIVE COURSE

WHY ATTEND?

This is the standard course for WA Safety and Health Representatives (SHR's) and is the introductory course for elected SHR's, including those from the mining industry and general workplaces.

This course aims to enable elected Representatives to effectively represent their fellow employees in matters relating to OSH in the workplace. It has been accredited since 1994 by the Commission for Occupational Safety and Health to provide the training required by Section 14(1)(h) of the WA OSH Act 1984.

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?

On completion of this course, participants should be able to:

- Apply knowledge of legislation in the role of a Safety and Health Representative
- Identify and locate information from a variety of sources
- Identify and evaluate hazards in the workplace and recommend control methods
- Conduct an effective inspection of their workplace
- Conduct an effective investigation into workplace illness/ injuries and accidents
- Communicate on Safety and Health matters and represent employees
- Describe the functions, make up and roles of a Safety and Health Committee
- Resolve conflict and issue Provisional Improvement Notices (PINs) when appropriate

A Certificate of Attendance will be awarded.
