Bullying, Harrassment & Discrimination in the Workplace

Workplace bullying, sexual harassment and cases of discrimination are still very common in our modern day working environment. However, as legislation becomes tougher and because more and more of our employees are becoming aware of their workplace rights, employers have a major responsibility to ensure their employees conduct themselves appropriately at all times.

Participants will be able to:

- Understand the differences between Bullying, Harassment & Discrimination.
- Explain the legal implications for employers and employees alike.
- Identify what bullying, harassment & discrimination looks like.
- Identify the effects of bullying both for individuals and businesses.
- Explain supervisor and employee responsibilities.
- Consider complaint considerations and act upon complaints effectively.
