ABOUT THE AWARDS

The Master Builders Apprentice of the Year Awards incorporating the Ric New Awards showcase the quality of overall standard of achievement of apprentices and young achievers employed within the Western Australian building & construction industry.

Applicants are assessed on their overall standard of achievement and potential. Many of our past winners have become successful contractors and builders today, who have gone on to win other Master Builders' Awards.

For Apprentice nominations, please complete nominations online HERE before close of entry.

All entries close 5:00pm Friday 23 September.

It is important you address all criteria for every category. If you aren't sure about something, contact MBA WA Events, we are always here to help.
